Wow! An action-packed adventure to gorgeous Costa Rica. Are you ready to zipline through the cloud forest? Hike Mt. Arenal, one of the world's most picturesque volcanos? Surf the Pacific? This trip is designed to be a short immersion in Latin America's most ecologically diverse country. With a balanced itinerary including urban San Jose, beach town Samara, and the rain forests of Arenal, this trip is definitely your chance to have an amazing experience while accruing community service hours.

You'll spend three nights in San Jose, close to where stunning waterfalls and the Poas Volcano provide a backdrop to coffee plantations and lush forests.

Ready to hang-ten? Whether you are a keen surfer or a total beginner, there's no way you won't LOVE surfing on Costa Rica's famous Guanacaste coast. Samara is a laid-back surf town popular with Costa Ricans who come to enjoy the beaches and water sports.

Finally, venture into the heart of Costa Rica and the Arenal Volcano National Park. Towering over the surrounding landscape the Volcano is the defining feature and can be seen for miles. Enjoy thermal hot springs, an exhilarating zipline tour, spotting wildlife, and eco hiking!
